

UI Arts Share Summer Arts Camp

The University of Iowa Arts Share program is offering a week-long arts program for children entering first through sixth grades. These are half-day sessions featuring workshops in creative movement, theatre, music, visual arts, and writing (poetry and fiction).

Spark Your Child's Creative Side This Summer!

Classes will be informal and energetic, in an intellectually safe, stimulating environment that fosters creative expression and interaction. Workshop leaders are UI graduate students or post-graduates who have extensive teaching experience through Arts Share.
